Civil Action No. 07-cv-02877

FIRST AMENDED COMPLAINT AND JURY DEMAND

RBCI Holdings, Inc., formerly known as Rheingold Brewing Company, Inc., through its undersigned counsel, Troutman Sanders LLP, hereby complains of Drinks Americas Holdings, Ltd. as follows:

PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

Plaintiff Rheingold Brewing Company, Inc. ("RBCI") brings this action against defendant Drinks Americas Holdings, Ltd. ("Drinks") to ensure that Drinks does not engage in its stated plan of action and infringe RBCI's trademark rights. Drinks continues to be engaged in the business of producing, marketing, advertising and selling alcoholic beverages in connection with the trademark "Rheingold". Pursuant to Drinks' default to and material breach of a contract between the parties, Drinks is required to reassign to RBCI various intellectual property, including the Rheingold trademark. Drinks refuses to abide by this agreement, and has publicly stated its intention to continue using various intellectual property, including the Rheingold trademark. After months of being unable to secure Drinks' agreement to behave lawfully, RBCI comes to this Court seeking to force Drinks to comply with the requirements between the parties, the requirements of the Lanham Act, and have this Court declare that Drinks' threatened action, will constitute trademark infringement in violation of the Lanham Act.

4. Upon information and belief, Drinks transacts substantial business in this judicial district and derives substantial revenues from this judicial district. Upon information and belief, the conduct of Drinks complained of herein has occurred in various locales, including in this judicial district.

5. Venue is proper in this judicial district pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1391(b) as it is the location of a substantial part of the events or omissions giving rise to the asserted claims.

FACTS COMMON TO ALL CAUSES OF ACTION
(RBCI's Exclusive License To Use The Rheingold Trademark)

6. On August 22, 1997, RBCI acquired a ninety-nine year exclusive, worldwide license to use a portfolio of intellectual property, including the trademark "Rheingold" (the "Rheingold Trademark") in connection with its marketing, distributing, sale and advertising of beer products pursuant to a license agreement with the Stroh Brewery Company (the "Rheingold License").

7. In or about August, 1997, RBCI adopted and commenced use of the Rheingold Trademark.

8. Over the years, the Rheingold Trademark became widely known through extensive advertising, promotional activities, marketing and sales of RBCI's various beer products. The Rheingold Trademark and the goodwill embodied therein became of great value to RBCI.

9. At all relevant times prior to October 27, 2005, RBCI was engaged in the business of manufacturing, marketing and distributing beer products bearing the Rheingold Trademark as well as undertaking promotion in connection therewith.

10. On or about October 27, 2005 (the "Closing Date"), RBCI and Drinks entered into an Asset Purchase Agreement (the "APA").

FACTS COMMON TO ALL CAUSES OF ACTION
(Salient Provisions of the APA)

11. The APA is the product of comprehensive, arms-length negotiations between RBCI and Drinks, whereby RBCI transferred to Drinks business assets in exchange for Drinks paying money to RBCI (the "Purchase Price") and assuming certain of RBCI's obligations (the "Assumed Obligations"). A copy of the APA is annexed hereto and is made a part of this Amended Complaint as Exhibit "A".

12. Upon the Closing Date of the APA, the exclusive license to the Rheingold Trademark was transferred from RBCI to Drinks in connection with the APA.

13. Pursuant to Section 3.1 of the APA, "[t]he Purchase Price [was the] sum of (i) $1,000,000, payable in shares of Common Stock, (ii) $150,000 payable in cash, and (iii) the assumption by Buyer of the Assumed Obligations" totaling $170,446.04.

14. Pursuant to the APA, Drinks was required to make a first installment payment (the "First Installment") towards the Purchase Price at the time of the Closing. The APA required that the First Installment consist of an indeterminate number of shares of Drinks' Common Stock with a fair market value ("FMV") of $650,000 along with the immediate assumption of the Assumed Obligations.

15. The APA required that on the one year anniversary of the closing date, Drinks was to provide to RBCI $150,000.00 in cash in addition to the remainder of the Drinks shares due RBCI (the "Second Installment"), which consisted of an indeterminate number of shares of Drinks Common Stock with a fair market value ("FMV") of $350,000.

16. Pursuant to Section 3.2(a) of the APA, the FMV for the shares included in the First Installment was to be determined by averaging the daily closing prices of the shares for each of the trading days during the period beginning on the day sixty (60) calendar days prior to the Closing and ending on the trading day preceding the Closing.

17. On the Closing Date, the FMV of the Common Stock shares calculated in the manner prescribed by Section 3.2(a) of the APA was approximately $0.897/share. As such, Drinks was obligated to convey to RBCI 724,638 shares of its Common Stock.

18. Pursuant to Section 3.2(b) of the APA, the FMV of the Second Installment was to be determined by averaging the daily closing prices of the shares for each of the trading days during the period beginning on the day which is sixty (60) calendar days prior to the one-year anniversary of the Closing (i.e. October 27, 2006), and ending on the trading day preceding such one-year anniversary.

19. Because of the significant value of the Rheingold Trademark and the very substantial goodwill therein, Section 3.3 of the APA provided that in the event of Drinks' failure to tender the Second Installment, all rights under the Rheingold License would revert to RBCI.

FACTS COMMON TO ALL CAUSES OF ACTION
(Drinks' Wholesale Breach of The APA and Continued Use of the Rheingold Trademark)

20. On the Anniversary Date, that is the date that the Second Installment was due, the FMV of the Common Stock shares was approximately $0.668 cents per share. As such, Drinks was required to convey to RBCI 525,738 shares of its Common Stock and $150,000 as the Second Installment.

21. Drinks unreasonably and willfully failed to make any portion of this Second Installment in direct contravention of the APA.

22. For several months RBCI attempted to negotiate a mutually beneficial resolution with Drinks in order to salvage the asset sale. These negotiations proved fruitless.

23. On or about March 21, 2007, RBCI, through its counsel, delivered a letter to Drinks' Chief Executive Officer, Patrick Kenny, advising him that Drinks had defaulted on its obligations under the APA.

24. Despite the aforementioned breaches of the APA, Drinks continues to be engaged in the business of producing, marketing, advertising and selling alcoholic and non-alcoholic beverages, including those marketed and distributed in connection with the Rheingold Trademark.

25. Drinks' ongoing marketing activities include the prominent display of the Rheingold Trademark on its Internet web-site maintained at the domain with the uniform resource locator <http://www.rheingoldbeer.com>. A true copy of the home page from Drinks' Internet web-site is annexed hereto and is made part of this Amended Complaint as Exhibit B.

26. Drinks' Internet web-site provides information as to where the purchasing public can obtain products bearing the Rheingold Trademark, including within this judicial district.

27. Drinks has failed to reassign the Rheingold License to RBCI, and it continues to use the Rheingold Trademark.

FIRST COUNT

(Specific Performance of Reassignment of the Rheingold License by Plaintiff RBCI)

28. Plaintiff repeats and realleges the foregoing paragraphs hereof, to the extent applicable, as though fully set forth herein.

29. The reassignment of the Rheingold License from Drinks to RBCI is contemplated in Article III of the APA. Specifically, Section 3.3 states that if Drinks "defaults in its obligation hereunder to make the second installment of the Purchase Price ... then, subject to the provisions of the Rheingold License and any applicable laws and regulations, the Rheingold License shall be deemed reassigned from Buyer to Seller.

30. Drinks failed to deliver the second installment payment of Drinks Common Stock shares and $150,000 to RBCI pursuant to Section 3.2(b) of the APA. Therefore, Drinks has failed to tender the Second Installment under the APA.

31. RBCI has repeatedly informed Drinks of its position that the defendant has defaulted under the APA and consequently, the Rheingold License must be reassigned to RBCI.

32. Drinks refuses to reassign the Rheingold License to RBCI.

33. Section 10 of the Lanham Act (15 U.S.C. § 1060) lists certain requirements for a trademark, including without limitation, that the assignment include any goodwill in the associated business as well as the assignment be in writing.

34. Section 10 of the Lanham Act (15 U.S.C. § 1060) also provides that an assignment, in proper form, must be recorded with the United States Patent and Trademark Office, in order to be valid notice to third parties.

35. RBCI has performed all conditions, covenants and promises to be performed on its part in accordance with the terms and conditions of the APA, except to the extent said performance has been excused or rendered impossible by Defendant.

36. Drinks' actions have prevented RBCI with properly recording the re-assignment in compliance with the Lanham Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1060.

37. As a proximate result of Drinks' breaches, RBCI has suffered damages in an amount according to proof at time of trial. However, RBCI has no adequate legal remedy in that their damages cannot be properly ascertained such that any damage award will be inadequate to compensate RBCI for the harm it has suffered. Accordingly, RBCI requests that Drinks be ordered to, inter alia, specifically perform its duties and obligations under the contract and reassign the Reingold Trademark to RBCI.

SECOND COUNT

(Declaratory Judgment of Trademark Infringement by Plaintiff RBCI)

38. Plaintiff repeats and realleges the foregoing paragraphs hereof, to the extent applicable, as though fully set forth herein.

39. This cause of action arises under 28 U.S.C. § 2201 and 15 U.S.C. § 1051, et. seq.

40. Subject matter jurisdiction for this claim is based on 28 U.S.C. §§ 1331, 1338, 2201 and 2202.

41. In light of Drinks' default of its obligations under Section 3.2(b) of the APA by failing to tender the Second Installment, the Rheingold License including the rights to the Rheingold Trademark must be reassigned to RBCI, extinguishing Drinks' right to exploit the Rheingold Trademark.

42. Drinks has publicly stated that its projection for growth is tied to its continued use of the Rheingold Trademark.

43. Drinks has publicly stated that it intends to continue to exploit the Rheingold Trademark for the foreseeable future.

44. Upon information and belief, Drinks has indicated its intent to continue producing, marketing, advertising and selling products in connection with the Rheingold Trademark.

45. Drinks' continued use of the Rheingold Trademark is likely to cause confusion, mistake and deception among the general purchasing public as to the origin of Drinks' products and is likely to deceive the public into believing Drinks' products originate from RBCI or otherwise are authorized by RBCI.

46. The threatened actions and conduct of Drinks is likely to cause consumer confusion, and result in future sales being unfairly lost and/or diverted.

47. Likewise, Drinks' action and conduct is likely to cause damage and harm to plaintiff's reputation, all to the detriment of RBCI.

48. Without a judicial declaration that its conduct is improper, Drinks will infringe upon the Rheingold Trademark notwithstanding that it must reassign the Rheingold License to RBCI, thereby deceiving and misleading the public and causing immediate and irreparable injury to RBCI's reputation and goodwill.

49. By reason of Drinks' continued use of the Rheingold Trademark and its resulting constructive claims of respective trademark rights, a controversy that is justiciable in nature exists between Drinks and RBCI with respect to the right to utilize the Rheingold Trademark.

THIRD COUNT
(Breach of Contract)

50. Plaintiff repeats and realleges the foregoing paragraphs hereof, to the extent applicable, as though fully set forth herein.

51. This cause of action arises under the laws of the state of New York.

52. Subject matter jurisdiction for this cause of action exists pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1367.

53. As set forth above, Drinks has materially breached the APA by, among other things, (a) failing to deliver the second installment payment of Drinks Common Stock shares to RBCI pursuant Section 3.2(b) of the APA; (b) failing to deliver $150,000 to RBCI pursuant to Section 3.2(b) of the APA; and failing to perform its obligations regarding the Assumed Obligations.

54. At no point did RBCI materially breach any provision of the APA, nor is RBCI currently in breach of any material provision thereof.

55. RBCI has performed all conditions required of it under the APA.

56. As a direct and proximate result of Drinks' breaches, RBCI has been damaged in an amount to be determined at trial.

WHEREFORE Plaintiff RBCI demands judgment and relief against Drinks as follows:

- A. An Order that Drinks specifically perform under the Asset Purchase Agreement and reassign the Rheingold License to RBCI;
- B. A Declaration that Drinks has infringed the Rheingold Trademark;
- C. That RBCI be awarded damages in an amount to be determined at trial based on defendant's breaches of the Asset Purchase Agreement and the infringement of the Rheingold Trademark;
- D. Compensatory and other damages;
- E. Pre- and post-judgment interest;
- F. Reasonable attorney's fees and costs; and
- G. Such other and further relief as this court deems proper.

DEMAND FOR A JURY TRIAL

RBCI hereby demands a trial by jury on all issues so triable.

Seller, as of the Closing Date, will be a corporation duly organized, validly existing and in good standing under the laws of the State of Delaware, has all requisite power and authority to own and hold the Acquired Assets owned or held by it, to conduct the Business as currently conducted by Seller, and is duly licensed or qualified to do business in each jurisdiction in which the operation of the Business makes such licensing or qualification necessary;

(b) Authority. (i) Subject to obtaining the approval of stockholders, as required by Section 7.1 hereof, Seller shall have all requisite corporate power and authority to execute and deliver this Agreement and to consummate the transactions contemplated hereby; (ii) Seller shall have obtained any necessary approvals for the execution and delivery of this Agreement and the consummation of the transaction contemplated hereby; and (iii) this Agreement shall have been duly executed and delivered by Seller and (assuming due authorization, execution and delivery by Buyer) shall constitute Seller's legal, valid and binding obligation, enforceable against it in accordance with its terms;

(c) Non-Contravention. Neither the execution and delivery of this Agreement by Seller nor the consummation by Seller of the transactions contemplated hereby shall constitute a violation of or be in conflict with, constitute or create a default under, or result in the creation or imposition of any Liens upon any property of Seller pursuant to (i) its certificate of incorporation or By-laws; (ii) any agreement or commitment to which Seller is a party or by which Seller or any of its properties are bound, or to which Seller is subject; or (iii) any law or statute or any judgment, decree, order, regulation or rule of any court or governmental or regulatory authority relating to Seller;

(d) Compliance with Laws. Seller has conducted and continues to conduct the Business so as to comply in all material respects with all laws and statutes and rules, regulations, judgments, orders or decrees of any court or governmental or regulatory authority applicable to Seller or any of its properties or assets, including the Acquired Assets and the Business, and Seller is not in violation of any such laws, statutes, rules, regulations, judgments, orders or decrees;

(e) Litigation. Except as set forth on Schedule 6.1(e) hereto, there are no actions, suits, proceedings or investigations pending or threatened, relating to or affecting the Business or the Acquired Assets, or which question the validity of this Agreement or challenge any of the transactions contemplated hereby or the use of the Acquired Assets or the conduct of the Business after the Closing by Buyer;

(f) Acquired Assets. Seller owns, and has the unrestricted right to transfer and assign to Buyer at the Closing, all right, title and interest in and to the Acquired Assets free and clear of all Liens;

(g) Assumed Contracts. Each of the Assumed Contracts is in full force and effect as of the date hereof. Seller has performed all obligations required to be performed by it and is not in default thereunder, and no event has occurred which, with the lapse of time and/or giving of notice, would constitute a default by Seller thereunder;

(h) Confidentiality. Seller has taken all commercially reasonable steps necessary to preserve the confidential nature of all material confidential information (including any proprietary information) with respect to the Business, Acquired Assets and Assumed Contracts;

(i) Brokers. No broker, finder or investment banker is entitled to any brokerage, finder's or other fee or commission in connection with the transactions contemplated by this Agreement based upon arrangements made by or on behalf of Seller;

7.3. Liability Concerning Unassumed Obligations. Following the Closing, Seller shall be solely responsible for the payment, settlement, or other disposition of all obligations of Seller not specifically being assumed by Buyer pursuant to this Agreement. Pursuant to such obligation, Seller shall indemnify and save harmless Buyer (and any of its officers, directors, or affiliates) from and against all liabilities, costs, damages, suits, or claims arising out of any matter arising out of any such unassumed obligation. The foregoing indemnification shall include, without limitation, the obligation to defend Buyer (or any of its officers, directors, or affiliates) in the event of any claim or suit arising out of any such unassumed obligation, and the prompt reimbursement or direct payment of any legal fees and disbursements incurred by Buyer (or any of its officers, directors, or affiliates) with its own counsel in dealing with or defending any claim by any holder of any such unassumed obligation.

7.4 Liability Concerning Assumed Obligations. Following the Closing, Buyer shall be solely responsible for the payment, settlement, or other disposition of all of the Assumed Obligations. Pursuant to such obligation, Buyer shall indemnify and hold harmless Seller (and any of its officers, directors, or affiliates) from and against all liabilities, costs, damages, suits, or claims arising out of any of the Assumed Obligations. The foregoing indemnification shall include, without limitation, the obligation to defend Seller (or any of its officers, directors, or affiliates) in the event of any claim or suit arising out of an Assumed Obligation, and the prompt reimbursement or direct payment of any legal fees or disbursements incurred by Seller (or any of its officers, directors, or affiliates) with its own counsel in dealing with or defending any matter arising out of an Assumed Obligation.

7.5. Access. From the date hereof until the Closing, upon reasonable notice, Seller shall, and shall cause its officers, directors, employees, agents and counsel to (i) afford the officers, employees, and authorized agents, accountants, counsel and financing sources and representatives of Buyer reasonable access, during normal business hours, to the offices, properties, other facilities, books and records of Seller and to those officers, directors, employees, agents, accountants and counsel of Seller who have knowledge relating to the Business, and (ii) furnish to the officers, employees and authorized agents, accountants, counsel, financing sources and representatives of Buyer such additional financial and operating data and other information regarding the Business and the Acquired Assets as Buyer from time to time may reasonably request.

Seller agrees that, promptly following the Closing, it shall file a change of name certificate with the Secretary of State of Delaware, changing the corporate name of Seller to one not containing the word "Rheingold," and consents to Buyer, should Buyer so elect in its sole discretion, to establish a subsidiary to be called "Rheingold Brewing Company, Inc." or a variation thereof.

7.7. Retention of Records. In order to facilitate the resolution of any claims made by or against or incurred by Buyer, for a period of three years after Closing, Seller shall (i) retain the books and records of Seller which are not transferred to Buyer pursuant to this Agreement relating to periods prior to the Closing in a manner reasonably consistent with the prior practices of Seller, and (ii) upon reasonable notice, afford the officers, employees and authorized agents and representatives of Buyer reasonable access (including the right to make, at Buyer's expense, photocopies), during normal business hours, to such books and records.

7.9. Post-Closing Audit. In the event that, within six months of the Closing, Buyer conducts a post-Closing accounting review and, as a result thereof, determines that the Company's Net Working Capital was less than the amount thereof required by Section 8.1(d) hereof, Buyer shall be entitled to deduct the aggregate of (i) any shortfall in Net Working Capital between the actual (as determined by such accounting review) and required amount thereof, from required FMV of the second installment of the Purchase Price; provided, however, that in the event that a dispute arises between Buyer and Seller as to any amount or amounts determined in such accounting review, Buyer and Seller shall each designate an accountant to resolve such dispute and such accountants shall endeavor to agree on the amounts in question, failing which such accountants shall agree on a third accountant, which is unaffiliated with either Buyer or any of Seller, who shall determine the amount or amounts in question.

7.10. Covenants regarding Allocation of Purchase Price. Prior to the Closing, the parties shall agree on an allocation of the Purchase Price among the acquired assets in a manner which complies with the requirements of the Tax Code. The parties agree that (i) the respective federal, state, local and foreign tax returns to be filed by each of them shall reflect such allocation, (ii) they shall cooperate in the preparation of such forms, and (iii) neither of them shall take any position contrary to such allocation in any tax return, in any refund claim, in any litigation, or otherwise, unless otherwise required to do so under applicable law.

8.2. Conditions to Seller's Obligations. The obligation of Seller to consummate the Closing shall be subject to the satisfaction at or prior to the Closing of each of the following conditions (to the extent noncompliance is not waived in writing by Seller in Seller's sole and absolute discretion), unless the failure of any such condition to be satisfied shall be the fault of Seller:
